Joel and Steve,

I had a meet and confer telephone call this morning with Arthur Gregg and Erik Solverud, relative to their subpoena and our objections to the subpoena. During the lengthy conversation, Mr. Solverud asked me whether I was claiming a privilege with respect to my communications with you all, and whether I was under a joint defense agreement with you all. I told him that I was under a joint defense agreement, and that I declined to discuss it any further. He became very insistent about whether I was a "signator" to a joint defense agreement, which I indicated that I was not going to speak to him about.

I just want to confirm that I am operating under the terms of the joint defense agreement that we discussed during our initial substantive conversation about this matter. I have never heard anyone indicate that we were not continuing to operate under that verbal agreement, so I assume it continues in effect going forward.

James
